

Chinook's Edge Board eNews

April 29, 2021

Edwin Parr nominee- The Board extends congratulations to Meaghan Halkyard from Hugh Sutherland School, for being named the Chinook's Edge nominee for the 2021 ASBA Edwin Parr Award. Olds Radio/Cochrane Now

Carstairs Elementary School expansion- Administrators at Carstairs Elementary and Hugh Sutherland schools are working together on a transition plan which will be shared later this spring, and The Board of Trustees is pleased with the progress of the expansion project.

School and Transportation Fees unchanged- The Board has passed a motion that will see both the School and Transportation fees remaining unchanged for the upcoming school year.

Innisfail High art tribute- A powerful symbol of isolation and perseverance is on permanent display at Innisfail High School, after students worked together to create a mosaic of Anne Frank. Red Deer Advocate/RD NewsNow

Volunteer Week- The Board appreciates the care and compassion that has defined the efforts of everyone in Chinook's Edge school communities this year. Earlier this winter, a special tribute was paid to division staff.

Trustee Election 2021- October 18 is Election Day, when stakeholders in our Chinook's Edge school communities have their say in defining their locally elected Board of Trustees.

Conference for Public Education Leaders The Board of Trustees had an opportunity earlier this month to hear solutions and best practices from other divisions, as they each took part in a virtual National School Boards Association conference.