

The joyful faces of Chinook's Edge

The right stuff - Penhold Elementary was able to make sure all students have proper skates and helmets, thanks to a donation from Hockey Alberta.

Hidden talents - When it's your birthday at Beacon Hill Elementary School, Principal Trevor Sanche creates your own balloon animal!

Sacred stories - Jody Vey's Grade 6 class at River Valley School studied and created their own Wampum Belts, representing their family, traditions, culture and themselves.

Connecting in person! The Connecting with COLT meeting with Penhold Elementary staff was able to take place in person, on the day COVID restrictions were lifted.

Good sports - Student referee, Connor, sends phys ed teacher Taylor Grenier to the penalty box during a playful game at École Olds High School.
