Creative Writing and Publishing

For the 2023-2024 School Year

Introduction to the Creative Writing and Publishing Course Sequence

Subject: Languages - Discipline: Other English

By following their writing interests and passions, students enrolled in Creative Writing & Publishing will write in a variety of specific creative writing genres. Moreover, students will build and manage their own digital portfolios and participate in the publishing process.

The sequence is built upon increasing sophistication in the understanding of concepts and application of strategies and skills that provide students with the opportunity to engage in the work in creative and innovative ways.

Student Need

This sequence provides students with the opportunity to explore interests, passions and career possibilities in writing and publishing. Students will have the opportunity to create original texts and follow editing, publishing and marketing processes using current approaches and technologies.

Students will learn through a variety of avenues which may include researching authors/publication houses, connecting with guest authors, liaising with professional writing organizations, submitting work to established publications and/or creating their own publications.
